

○ Short-term Childcare Support Program

(kosodate tanki shien jigyo)

～For households struggling with parenting that are lacking support from relatives, friends, etc.～
(in the case of ineligibility under other support systems)

City-designated welfare facilities offer temporary childcare for households that due to e.g. illness or work would like to have their child placed in short-term care but lack a place to put the child or a nearby friend or family member who can care for the child.

■ Eligibility

Eligible children: Children junior high school age and under who are residents of Izumo city.

Reasons for eligibility: A guardian becomes eligible when they temporarily cannot raise the child due to the following reasons.

- hospitalization, regular hospital visits or recuperation at home due to illness, child birth, injury, etc.
- nursing or taking care of an ill or injured relative
- victim of an accident or natural disaster
- absence due to ceremonial family occasions, participation in official events
- business trips due to work
- returning home late at night due to work
- fatigue from childcare, when parenting is difficult due to parenting anxiety etc.

※Please be aware that receiving support through this program is not allowed if there is someone else available to take care of the child, another system is applicable, or if medical assistance is necessary.

■ Usage Fee

Usage between 8:00 and 17:00	2,000 yen
Usage between 17:00 and 22:00	2,500 yen
